SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6. 1740.

91: 1626.

His Excellency JONATHAN BELCHER, Esq; Lieutenant General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majesty's Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, A Proclamation.

HEREAS his Majesty has been pleased by his Instruction to me under his Royal Sign Manual, bearing Date the second Day of April last, to signify, That in the Prosecution of the War against Spain, he is determined, by GOD's Assistance in so just a Cause, to vindicate the Honor of his Imperial Crown, to revenge the Injuries done to his Subjects, to assert their undoubted Rights of Commerce and Navigation, and by all possible Means to attack, annoy and distress a Nation that has acted his People with such Insolence and Barbarity; and has therefore given Orders for equipping and setting forth an Expedition against the Territories of the aforesaid King in the West Indies, to consist of a Squadron of his Majesty's Ships of War, under the Command of the Hon. Edward Vernon, Esq; Vice Admiral of the Blue Squadron, and a considerable Body of Land Forces to be commanded by the Right Hon. Charles Lord Cathcart, Major General of his Majesty's Forces, as General and Commander in Chief of said Expedition; and that he has determined to send a Body of Troops in his Colonies on the Continent of North America, to join the other Troops at particular Rendezvous, which will be appointed for that Purpose, and to act in Conjunction with them under the Command of the said General; and that altho' his Majesty has not thought fit to fix any particular Quota for this Province, because he would not set bounds to our Zeal for his Service; yet he is graciously pleased to express his Royal Confidence in us, and considering the great Number of Inhabitants in this Province, and that of late Years they have been much increased, we will exert ourselves on this Occasion as far as the Circumstances of the Province will allow, assuring us, that we cannot render a more acceptable Service to him and to our Mother Country, by doing any thing more essential for our own Interest; and whereas his Majesty has commanded me that I do with the utmost Zeal and Diligence promote and encourage so necessary a Disposition, and that I forthwith issue a Proclamation, giving Notice of his Royal Intentions in this Behalf, and for inviting his good Subjects in this Province cheerfully to enlist in this Service;

I have therefore thought fit, with the Advice of his Majesty's Council, to issue this Proclamation, whereby to make known his Majesty's Pleasure in this Affair, and the following Encouragement he is graciously pleased to give to such able-bodied effective Men as shall enlist in the said Service, viz.

That each Company shall consist of One hundred Men, including four Sergeants, four Corporals, and two Drummers, besides Commission Officers, which shall be one Captain, two Lieutenants, and an Ensign; his Majesty reserving to himself the Nomination of the Field and Staff Officers of the said Forces, and one Lieutenant for each Company, to be a Man of Experience to be sent from Great Britain, to meet the Company at the general Rendezvous; and that each Company will be furnished with one Sergeant to be drawn out of the old Soldiers of the independent Companies in New York; and that the rest of the Officers are left to my Nomination, and I daily expect blank Commissions under his Majesty's Sign Manual, which will be filled up by me, and delivered free of all Charge to such Commission Officers: That the Troops to be raised in pursuance of these his Majesty's Instructions, as well Officers as Soldiers, shall enter into his Majesty's Pay, and enjoy the same Rank and Pay with the rest of his Majesty's Troops, so long as they shall continue in his Service; That all the Sergeants, Corporals, Drummers, and Private Soldiers shall be entitled to receive his Majesty's Pay from the respective Days they shall be enlisted; and the Officers from the Day their Commissions bear Date; Which Officers shall take Post and Rank in the respective Battalions in which they shall be formed, according to the Date of the Certificates by which it shall appear when each Captain respectively had completed his Levies: And as a further Encouragement to such Officers and Soldiers as shall engage in this Expedition, I do assure them in his Majesty's Name, That the Soldiers shall not only be cloath'd and arm'd according to such Samples as his Majesty has order'd to be sent from Great Britain, and furnish'd with Tents, and entertain'd in his Majesty's Pay, but that after their Arrival at the general Place of Rendezvous, they shall be provided for in every other Respect as his Majesty's British Troops, and that they shall have their just Share and Proportion of all Plunder or Booty gained or taken from the Enemy according to their Services; and if, by the Blessing of God upon his Majesty's Arms, any of the Enemy's Lands or Settlements shall fall into his Majesty's Hands, the American Troops shall have a Share thereof as well as the rest of the Forces, in preference to all other Persons that shall not engage in this Expedition; and that so soon as the said Expedition shall be determin'd, whatever the Success thereof may be, all the Troops rais'd in the American Colonies for this Purpose, as well Officers as Soldiers, shall have free Leave to return to their respective Provinces, and shall be transported thither at his Majesty's Expence, except those only that shall choose for their own Advantage to settle or remain in such Places or Garrisons as shall fall into his Majesty's Hands, where they shall receive all due Encouragement; And the Soldiers whether they remain there or return home after the said Expedition shall retain their Arms and Cloathing.

And particularly that all such Persons as are able Pilots for the said Spanish Coasts and Harbours shall meet with all such suitable Encouragement from his Majesty.

And to the Intent that all Persons purposing to engage in the said Service may have their Election of the Captains in whose Companies they would enlist;

I shall order the Names of the Captains and other Commission Officers, to be appointed by me for this Service, to be printed in the Weekly News Papers.

Given at the Council Chamber in Boston, the 30th

THE New Pope is Nephew to Cardinal Davia, was made Bishop of Ancona, and on the 30th of April 1731 he was translated by Pope Clement XII. to the Archbishoprick of Bologna. He is to be crown'd To-morrow in the Church of St. Peter in the Vatican; and he has granted a Plenary Indulgence for all Sins, to all Catholics that after Con-
